24th December - Christmas Eve

Following a leisurely breakfast, you have time to unwind, revive and relax at the hotel while the little ones have fun with activities. Then, perhaps head out as a family and discover the local area and stunning surroundings. In the afternoon, indulge in a glass of mulled wine and a mince pie in the Vista Lounge followed by Children's High Tea. Early evening carols will get everyone in the Christmas spirit and the children can watch a film and leave carrots out for Father Christmas's reindeer. Delight in a festive feast, taking in the Christmas atmosphere. Midnight Mass can be celebrated locally at Mullion Church, and if you would like to attend we can take care of transporting you there and mulled wine and mince pies will await you on your return.

25th December - Christmas Day

Wake up to the sunrise glistening over the water. Before or after opening your Christmas presents, enjoy a hearty breakfast and a glass of Bucks Fizz. Father Christmas is due to stop-by the Polurrian after his night of delivering presents...

Blow away the morning cobwebs by taking a refreshing stroll along the stunning, classically Cornish seafront, indulge in the panoramic views and build your appetite for a selection of canapés & Prosecco followed by Christmas lunch. Be wowed by our magician, before the Queen delivers her Christmas message and then enjoy tea / coffee and traditional Christmas cake in the Vista Lounge. Festive movies will be showing in the cinema for the little ones to enjoy in the evening. Our chef will prepare a scrumptious Gala Buffet for the family evening dinner. The food, atmosphere and experience will be something the whole family will enjoy.

26th December - Boxing Day

Enjoy a well-deserved lie-in and take time to relax, while your children have fun at our Breakfast Club. After a gentle breakfast, wrap up warm and enjoy a walk around our grounds or along the coastline taking in the breath-taking views. For those brave enough, the annual Boxing Day swim at Poldhu Cove is a wonderful community event and we'll provide towels for those who fancy a dip. Hot Cornish pasties and soup will be here on your return to fill hungry tummies and to warm your cockles.

Make the most of family leisure time in the afternoon with board games, children's in-house activities and a film in the evening. You'll enjoy a stunning delicious evening menu as darkness falls and you dine looking out on the moonlit Atlantic Ocean.
